CATHOLIC STAGE GUILD

present

GRAND OPERATIC CONCERT

(by kind permission of Dublin Grand Opera Society)

on

Sunday, 7th December, 1958

8 p.m.

The President and Council of the Catholic Stage Guild take this opportunity of thanking the distinguished Italian Artistes who, at considerable sacrifice to themselves, have so kindly agreed to put their talents and services at the disposal of the Guild Benevolent fund. We are also deeply indebted to the Dublin Grand Opera Society, the Management of the Gaiety Theatre, Messrs. Pye (Ireland) Ltd., Mr. George O'Reilly, Tara Street Record Shop and Messrs. Drages of Grafton St.

JIMMY O'DEA,

President.

The public may leave at the end of the performance by all exit doors. Persons shall not be permitted to stand or sit in any of the gangways intersecting the seating, or to sit in any of the other gangways.—Copy Bye-Law.

CHRISTMAS

Christmas will soon be with us again, and above all else it is the festival of the home. Outside storms and gales may rage, or the land be muffled and frozen in a carpet of frost and snow, but inside the family circle we can enjoy our Christmas tree, our roaring fire, maybe our turkey and plum pudding and, the company of our friends and relations. However, if we have no music, one thing most essential to our perfect happiness will be missing. So why not get a piano now and make your enjoyment complete? You can make your choice nowhere better than in McCullough's Music Salons, where pianos of all makes and sizes are on display, from the most imposing drawingroom grand to the small upright cottage.
